The Community Club is for students interested in local community projects. If you're interested in art, music, sports, or other activities, or have the passion to build a stronger community, this club would be a good opportunity for you.

The main goals of Community Club are:

1. To learn more and gain a better understanding about the many communities to which we belong.
2. To find ways to build positive relationships with people in our greater communities by playing on student's strengths and interests.

Some projects for building a stronger community might include working with the people of Pitong Gatang, a neighboring community near Brentville, as well as collaborating with students from other countries on service projects.
